“Would You Like Your Summers Off?”

Casual/Part-time School Bus Drivers

Do you enjoy interacting with children? Are you a good driver? Could you use extra cash and the opportunity of Health and Dental Benefits? If you answered yes, then we have the job for you. Come and drive a school bus with us!

School bus drivers are required for The Regina Public School Transportation Division for the start of the new school year. (August 25, 2011). Part time and casual shifts are available with the opportunity to pick up extra work. Ideal candidates will demonstrate strong interpersonal and communication skills. Safe driving practices are a must.

School bus driving experience is an asset; however training is available for non-licensed bus drivers.

A copy of a current, satisfactory driving abstract and criminal record is required upon hire.

Competitive wages, benefits/pension plan and training support, is offered.
